

Editor Job Description – Imam Hussein Media Group

Salary: Dependent upon experience

Location: North West London (Colindale)

Job Role: The editor receives raw footage of programs and film, locates and cuts out all mistakes in speech, lighting and camera work. Editors are also responsible for applying graphics to the film such as lower thirds, credits as well as title sequences. Once a film has been edited the film is rendered for the censorship department to view. The censorship team may request changes and once the editor makes those changes this film is rendered and set for broadcasting.

Key responsibilities

- . Manage editing projects and completing them by deadline.
- . Chasing up missing footage and files for editing
- . Add changes requested by producers or senior editors
- . Creating fillers from stock footage

Personal Specification

- . Must have a good level of English (Listening and reading)
- . Must be able to work as part of a team
- . Must have good understanding of the Islamic Shia faith
- . Experience in a similar role
- . Familiar with desktop software such as Microsoft word and excel
- . Must have knowledge of editing software such as 'Final Cut Pro' and 'After Effects'
- . Expected to work longer hours during peak seasons
- . Creative input into projects

How to apply

To apply please send your CV with a covering letter to work@imamhussein.tv
Successful applicants will be invited to attend an interview